September 01, 2017, Hong Kong – Ms. Rebecca Kwan, General Manager of Lan Kwai Fong Hotel @ Kau U Fong was awarded the prestigious “Asian Social Caring Leadership Award” during the event of Belt and Road Leadership Series: Sustainable Development Summit. This is Social Enterprise Research Institute (SERI)’s 6th year of recognising enterprises and individuals that have the most outstanding commitment to put values into practice in terms of social responsibility. 11 companies and individuals across different industries, from medical, security management, education, charity, property management and so on were awarded for their excellence.

SERI is a non-profit organisation dedicated to the continual development, promotion and application of corporate citizenship principles, models and technique in Asia. To be a selected recipient of this prestigious award, one needs to demonstrate an in-depth understanding of the importance of environmental preservation and is 100% committed in community involvement and development, eliminating the discrimination of employment and occupation and all forms of forced and compulsory labour, working against corruption in all its forms and providing quality, health and safety products and/or services to customers.

Ms. Rebecca Kwan understands the importance of promoting social care and the sustainable development of the community. She tirelessly pursuit and drives her team at the award-winning Lan Kwai Fong Hotel @ Kau U Fong to actively involve themselves in public welfare activities; to make a difference and to contribute back to the community where they operate and live; and to improve the management of natural resources. In the hotel’s day-to-day operations, the team is committed in its go green environmental policy, take care of employee’s welfare and rights, and strive to provide excellent guest services so as to promote the sustainability of Hong Kong’s tourism industry development. In addition, Ms. Rebecca Kwan continuously supports and participates in voluntary works with her team not only to raise awareness of emerging environmental challenges but also serves as an inspiration for transformative action in the hospitality industry.

Ms Rebecca Kwan is also the Senior Vice President of Sales (HK & UK) of Dorsett Hospitality International. She was recently appointed an additional role within the group as Head of Operations - UK to oversee the entire hotel operations in the United Kingdom comprising the Dorsett Shepherds Bush and the newly soft-opened Dorsett City London located in Aldgate with two more scheduled to open within the next few years.
